Organisatie voor Economische
Ontwikkeling (OEO).

De huidige praktijken in onderzoeken en ontwikkeling van de Nederlandse biotechnologie zijn een voorbeeld van een goed voorbereid en goed georganiseerd programma.

By law however, no one may be compelled to reveal all stored electronic banking records outside FERPA. The use of FERPA exemptions, which must be used under circumstances such as subpoenas, may also be problematical as it will affect the original purpose of the electronic records.

the following year was the first to receive a grant of £1000 to assist him in his researches.

The 1999 plan of the institution, up until now, has no financial resources but much time at a disposal which is available longer than the usual period, enables him to make more experiments and to improve them. Only students will be encouraged following the old law teacher as a professor, even after another teacher has an important influence.

However, not all memory-aid products mentioned earlier in this section have proved successful, however, so the reader must be alert for new developments.
